

GOVERNANCE

The College Senate, the legislative body of the College, has jurisdiction over educational policy and programs. After appropriate administrative approval, the actions of the College Senate are subject to the approval of the University System of New Hampshire Board of Trustees.