

EDUCATION STUDIES MINOR

---

The Education Studies minor provides students with a multidisciplinary understanding of working with children, their families, and schools to expand their knowledge of teaching and learning. This is a non-licensure minor designed for non-education majors interested in learning skills and knowledge working with students, schools, and families. Early Childhood, Elementary, and Secondary Education majors are not eligible to pursue this minor.