

ENVIRONMENTAL STUDIES MINOR

A minor in Environmental Studies provides a complement to a wide range of majors such as Biology, Economics, Chemistry, Geography, and Sociology.

Code	Title	Credits	Completed
Minor Requirements (24 credits)
Select one Introduction to Environmental Studies course:		4	_____
IENST-150	Global Environmental Change		_____
or IENST-151 The Environment of Central New England			_____
Core Requirements
ISENST-120	Principles of Sustainability	4	_____
ENST-253	Environmental Governance	4	_____
Select one of the following Environmental Science courses:		4	_____
INENST-201	Earth Cycles & Systems		_____
or ENST-252 Ecology of a Changing Planet			_____
Select two additional ENST courses at the 300-level or above.		8	_____
Total Credits		24	_____

Please note some courses have pre-requisites.

Upon the completion of the Environmental Studies minor students will be able to:

- Demonstrate effective communication skills.
- Utilize scientific thinking.
- Exhibit professionalism.
- Demonstrate knowledge of environmental science.
- Demonstrate knowledge of the human dimensions of the environment.
- Apply integrative problem-solving to environmental issues.