

GRAPHIC DESIGN MINOR

---

The Graphic Design Minor provides students the opportunity to complement or enhance a major in the study and practice of visual communication design. Students receive a foundational experience rooted in professional graphic design software, design fundamentals, and experience designing presentations, posters, publications, visual identity systems, and web sites.