STATISTICS MINOR

Students pursuing this minor learn how to apply methods of statistical inference in order to analyze data and make data-driven decisions, thereby gaining valuable experience relevant to a wide variety of employment opportunities in business and industry.